PRESS RELEASE:

Re: Cincinnati Industrial Machinery, Inc. v. VMI Holland BV, Case no. 1:09-cv-604

Please be advised that actions by VMI Holland BV (“VMI”), which are in breach of the License Agreement between Cincinnati Industrial Machinery (“Cincinnati”) and VMI, have necessitated that Cincinnati pursue legal action against VMI in the United States District Court for the Southern District of Ohio, Western Division.

The legal filings, which are captioned Cincinnati Industrial Machinery, Inc. v. VMI Holland BV, Case no. 1:09-cv-604, set forth various claims for relief against VMI, including claims requesting that VMI and all other parties in active consort, or participation with VMI, be barred from manufacturing or selling any products incorporating technology acquired by or through Cincinnati other than pursuant to the express terms of the License Agreement. Among other things the License Agreement bars VMI from manufacturing any products incorporating technology acquired by or through Cincinnati outside of VMI’s plant in Epe, Holland and further bars VMI from disclosing to any third parties any of the information acquired by or through Cincinnati.

In the alternative, Cincinnati has asked the Court to terminate the License Agreement and forever bar VMI from manufacturing or selling any products incorporating technology acquired by or through Cincinnati.

Sincerely,
CINCINNATI INDUSTRIAL MACHINERY, INC.
